NOTICE

Unless specific permission is granted, no photography, video recording, or audio recording is permitted within the courthouse, except under specific circumstances (e.g. to record naturalization ceremonies). Cellular phones, including those that have the ability to capture and transmit still and video images, are allowed into the courthouse once examined by security upon entrance into the building. Signs are posted outside each courtroom that specifically state whether electronic devices are to be turned off or placed in silent/vibrate mode before entering courtrooms. Violators may be held in contempt of court.
