ANNOUNCEMENT

On Friday, June 27, 2014, the Court will host a continuing legal education seminar on medical issues in prisoner litigation. Medical claims by prisoners are some of the most interesting and prevalent cases for which lawyers are recruited to provide representation to indigent plaintiffs. This seminar will provide substantive legal training and will be geared to assist court-recruited counsel in prisoner medical care cases.

Lawyers recently appointed by the Court to represent a prisoner and those interested in accepting pro bono appointments are strongly encouraged to attend this special seminar. Please forward this announcement to everyone in your firm. Everyone is welcome whether they are currently working on a case or not.

This free seminar will be held at the Chase Tower, 111 Monument Circle, Indianapolis, Indiana.¹ It will begin at 8:30 a.m. and end at 12:30 p.m. Four hours of CLE credit, including one hour of ethics credit, is anticipated.

This program will be led by the Honorable Judge Magnus-Stinson; Magistrate Judge Dinsmore; Monica Foster, Chief Federal Defender; and Assistant U.S. Attorneys Jill Julian and Jon Bont. Practitioners Alice Morical and Jan Michelsen will share their experiences and opportunities to get involved will be presented.

Please submit the following information to Mary Ellen Henn at Mary_Ellen_Henn@insd.uscourts.gov to register. Name, Firm or Organization, email address, attorney registration number, and phone number. Limited space is available, so please register soon to reserve a seat.
