

Nominations for the Henry Hurst Judicial Assistance Award

The Indiana State Bar Association's Federal Judiciary Committee is currently seeking nominations from federal judges, the public, attorneys practicing in Indiana's federal courts, and a candidate's peers for the Henry Hurst Judicial Assistance Award. The Hurst Award is named in memory of Henry Hurst, the first federal clerk of the district court of Indiana, sworn in on May 5, 1817 and serving the entire State until 1835. Henry Hurst exemplified the importance of having highly skilled personnel assisting the federal judiciary in order to promote justice and efficiency of the courts.

This year the Hurst Award is to be presented to a member of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Indiana. Nominees shall be from the Northern District of Indiana and serve as a member of the district court clerk's office or the district bankruptcy court clerk's office, as a staff member to a district court judge, a district bankruptcy court judge, or a magistrate judge, or as a member of the administrative personnel.

Nominations are to be sent to Kim Latimore at klatimore@inbar.org or via this link <https://inbar.site-ym.com/page/henryhurstaward> to be received by August 15, 2016. Please identify the nominee's job title and provide a description of the candidate's qualifications for the award.
