Upcoming CLE Programs

The U.S. District Court is offering free continuing legal education programs throughout the year. Under Local Rule 87, attorneys who are members of the Voluntary or Obligatory Panels may be recruited to represent inmates in civil cases. Many attorneys are unfamiliar with prisoner litigation. These free programs are designed to alleviate counsel's concerns regarding these types of cases. The programs will concentrate on an effective, economical, and efficient approach that will benefit attorneys in all types of litigation.
