- be double spaced (except for headings, footnotes, and quoted material);
- have consecutively numbered pages;
- include a title on the first page;
- if it has four or more exhibits, include a separate index that identifies and briefly describes each exhibit;
- if it is a form of order, include a statement of service, in the format required by S.D. Ind. L.R. 5-5(d) in the lower left corner of the document; and
- in the case of pleadings, motions, legal briefs, and notices, include the name, complete address, telephone number, facsimile number (where available), and e-mail address (where available) of the pro se litigant or attorney who files it.

(c) Electronic Filings. Any document submitted via the court's electronic case filing (ECF) system must be:

- in .pdf format;
- converted to a .pdf file directly from a word processing program, unless it exists only in paper format (in which case it may be scanned to create a .pdf document);

- submitted as one or more .pdf files that do not exceed 10 megabytes each (consistent with the CM/ECF Policies and Procedures Manual); and
- otherwise prepared and filed in a manner consistent with the CM/ECF Policies and Procedures Manual.

(d) Non-Electronic Filings.

(1) Form, Style, and Size of Documents. Any document that is not filed electronically must:

- be flat, unfolded, and on good-quality, 8.5" x 11" white paper;
- be single-sided;
- not have a cover or a back;

- be two-hole punched at the top with the holes 2 ¾" apart and appropriately centered; and
- include the original signature of the pro se litigant or attorney who files it.

(2) Request for Nonconforming Fastening. If a document cannot be fastened or bound as required by this rule, a party may ask the clerk for permission to fasten it in another manner. The party must make such a request before attempting to file the document with nonconforming fastening.

(e) Nonconforming Documents. The clerk will accept a document that violates this rule, but the court may exclude the document from the official record.

Local Rules Advisory Committee Comments
Re: 2016 Amendment

In certain instances, the court will direct the parties to submit items directly to chambers (e.g., confidential settlement statements). However, absent specific prior authorization, counsel and litigants should not submit letters or documents directly to chambers, and such materials should be filed with the clerk.
