Salary: CL 24/25 - $18,622 - $25,720 based on Part-time Schedule 40 hours per biweekly pay period
depending on qualifications and experience
CLOSING DATE: October 25, 2019

The United States District Court is accepting applications for a Case Administrator in its Evansville Divisional office. This position reports to the Evansville Deputy-in-Charge. Applicants should have excellent administrative and organizational skills with the ability to effectively communicate both verbally and in writing. Exemplary customer service skills, a friendly, helpful, and professional demeanor, and the ability to work as part of a team are imperative. Successful candidates will be highly motivated and exhibit excellent attention to detail.

The case administrator makes summary entries of all documents and proceedings on the docket. This includes, but is not limited to, pleadings, petitions, motions, complaints, minutes and orders. The incumbent checks the accuracy of daily data entries, performs quality checks on attorney filings, performs edits and corrective actions, contacts filers to request corrections, archives records, maintains party and attorney records in the case management database, generates and analyzes quality control reports, advises managers regarding trends in filing errors, assists in the development and revision of procedures for data entry, researches and proposes solutions to various case management issues, answers questions from litigants, attorneys, court employees, and the public, and trains new users on case management system policies and procedures.

QUALIFICATIONS: For CL 24, a minimum of one year of specialized experience in a progressively responsible administrative, case management and/or database role, preferably in the legal field. For CL 25, one year of specialized experience equivalent to work at a CL 24. Prefer two years of specialized legal experience in a case management and electronic case filing environment. Dependability with a commitment to regular attendance and punctuality is a highly regarded characteristic. The incumbent must exercise sound judgment, maintain confidences, work harmoniously with others, and foster high ethical standards. Applicant must be capable of generating a high volume of statistical and quality control data with a significant degree of self-reliance. A successful candidate must be familiar with legal terminology and have the ability to apply a body of rules, regulations, directives, or laws.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS: Complete instructions and a description of benefits may be found on the Court's website www.insd.uscourts.gov under Employment Opportunities. In order to be considered for this position, candidates must submit the entire application package in the manner prescribed by the instructions.

The Court is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Applicants are subject to a complete FBI background investigation. Employment will be provisional and contingent upon the satisfactory completion of the required background investigation. The Federal Financial Reform Act requires direct deposit of federal wages for court employees. The United States District Court is a smoke-free environment.
