Pro Bono Mentoring Resources

The Court has partnered with two experienced attorneys who are willing to consult with court recruited counsel on their civil cases.

James P. Chapman

The Court has entered into an attorney services contract with James P. Chapman. Mr. Chapman will provide regular continuing legal education seminars and will be available to recruited counsel as a consulting attorney.

In 1998, Mr. Chapman founded the Illinois Institute of Community Law and Affairs, a not-for-profit organization that develops policies and programs that deal with prison conditions, prisoner release, and recidivism. He is a graduate of Harvard Law School and has been an active trial and appellate attorney since his graduation. As an Adjunct Professor at Southern Illinois University Law School, Jim teaches prisoner civil rights litigation. For nearly 20 years, the Federal Court for the Northern District of Illinois has engaged Jim to advise attorneys appointed by the Court to represent prisoners in their civil rights cases.

Recruited counsel may contact Mr. Chapman at (312) 593-6998 or JamesPChapman@aol.com.

William G. Hussmann, Jr.

William G. Hussmann, Jr., former U.S. Magistrate Judge for the Southern District of Indiana, has volunteered to answer court recruited attorneys' questions regarding practicing in the Southern District of Indiana and settlement. Mr. Hussmann can be contacted at (812) 474-4400, ext. 6317 and whussmann@k-glau.com.

The Southern District of Indiana is pleased to provide this resource to lawyers appearing pursuant to Local Rule 87.
