12/29/2022	107	ORDER DENYING WITHOUT PREJUDICE MOTION FOR ASSISTANCE WITH RECRUITING COUNSEL - Rodney Perry has filed a motion for assistance recruiting counsel. Dkt. 83 . Litigants in federal civil cases do not have a constitutional or statutory right to court-appointed counsel. Mr. Perry states that his ability to litigate pro se is hindered by depression and diabetes, which leave him exhausted and limit his attention. But these conditions do not make Mr. Perry unique among prisoners litigating civil cases. Moreover, Mr. Perry's thorough and voluminous filings show that he is able to request, gather, organize, and present evidence to the Court. He filed 13 motions and other filings between November 28 and December 20 alone. For these reasons, Mr. Perry is capable of litigating this action pro se through the resolution of motions for summary judgment. The Court will remain alert to changes in circumstances that may warrant reconsideration of the motion, such as a settlement conference or trial. Mr. Perry's motion to demonstrate reasonable efforts to recruit counsel, dkt. 84 , is GRANTED. However, his motion to appoint counsel, dkt. 83 , is DENIED. (See Order).
