That process has been unsuccessful. The clerk is designated, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(h)(1) and 4(e)(1), to issue process to defendant Rawley. Process shall consist of a summons. The Marshal for this District or his Deputy shall serve the summons, together with a copy of the amended complaint, filed on February 25, 2019 (dkt. 17), the Screening Order (dkt. 29), and a copy of this Order, on the defendant, at the expense of the United States. See Ind. Trial Rule 4.1(A)(1); Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(e)(1). A potential address for defendant Rawley can be found at docket 13. The Marshal is required to use the Marshal's available resources to track down and serve defendant Rawley. See Williams v. Werlinger, 795 F.3d 759 (7th Cir. 2015). The clerk is directed to include a copy of the amended complaint (dkt. 17) and the screening order (dkt. 29) with the defendant's copy of this Order. Copy sent to Distribution list via US Mail. 05/23/2023	43	ORDER DIRECTING CLERK TO ENTER DEFAULT AGAINST DEFENDANT - Plaintiff Robert Woods, an Indiana Department of Correction (IDOC) inmate, filed this civil rights action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Mr. Woods alleges that the defendant used excessive force against him in violation of his constitutional rights. The Court screened the complaint and allowed an Eighth Amendment claim to proceed against the defendant. Pursuant to Rule 55(b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, if the plaintiff wishes the clerk to enter a default judgment, he must file a motion requesting such relief. Additionally, unless the damages are certain, the Court must determine the amount of damages that are appropriate. Thus, to the extent that the plaintiff requests the clerk to enter default judgment, he must provide evidence of the damages he alleges that the defendant is responsible for. The plaintiff shall have through June 27, 2023, in which to file a motion for default judgment and provide evidence of damages. Because Mr. Rawley also failed to provide an alternate address to publish to the plaintiff to litigate this action, the clerk is directed to add to the docket Mr. Rawley's address consistent with the distribution of this Order. (Copy sent to Defendant via U.S. mail) SEE ORDER. Signed by District Judge Richard L Young on 5/23/2023.(JDC) (Entered: 05/23/2023)

02/28/2024	50	Order on Pending Motions - Mr. Woods' motion for default judgment, dkt. 44 , and motion for court assistance, dkt. 48 , are granted to the extent the Court will set by separate order a hearing to determine the appropriate amount of damages. Mr. Woods' motion for immediate transfer, dkt. 49 , must be denied because a request for injunctive relief must necessarily be tied to the specific claims on which the plaintiff is proceeding. Because it is the Court's preference that the plaintiff be represented by counsel for a damages hearing, the Court will attempt to recruit counsel to represent the plaintiff. The plaintiff shall have through March 28, 2024, in which to file a motion for recruitment of counsel or object to the recruitment of counsel on his behalf. The clerk is directed to include the motion for counsel form with the plaintiff's copy of this Order. (See Order.) Signed by District Judge Richard L. Young on 2/28/2024. 		has passed without response from the plaintiff. The Court now extends his deadline to return the completed motion for counsel form to April 19, 2024. It is the plaintiff's responsibility to serve this subpoena on the appropriate person. The Court notes that the plaintiff intends to subpoena video evidence from a non-party, and that it is likely that his custodian will not allow him to possess such evidence. Thus, he should consider directing the non-party to submit his requested evidence to this Court directly and include the appropriate case number, 1:22-cv-00875-RLY-TAB. The plaintiff's deadline to submit exhibits for consideration at the damages hearing is extended through June 6, 2024. See Order.
