

Local Rule 5-9 - Retention of Documents in Cases Filed Electronically

A person who electronically files a document that requires an original signature must maintain the original signed document for two years after all deadlines for appeals in the case expire. On request of the court, the Filing User must provide original documents for review.

Note: Effective January 1, 2012, former Local Rule 5.14 becomes 5-9.