Re: United States v. Jared Fogle Change of Plea and Sentencing Hearing

Further to the Decorum Order issued by the Court in the case of United States v. Jared Fogle, 1:15-cr-159-TWP-MJD, all media vehicles covering the change of plea and sentencing hearing on Thursday, November 19, 2015, must park on New York Street, between Pennsylvania and Delaware Streets. Both the north and south lanes of New York Street have been reserved for media parking. Media vehicles may not park on the four streets or sidewalks immediately surrounding the Courthouse.

Additionally, the media is reminded that the Court has designated the plaza on the east side of the Courthouse (Pennsylvania Street) for media use. Media shall limit their activities to this area. At no time should public access to the Courthouse be restricted or obstructed by media covering events. No member of the media shall attempt to secure an interview or conduct an interview inside of the Courthouse or in any area that prevents ingress to and egress from the Courthouse.

Federal agents will be enforcing these directives and all other directives included in the Decorum Order.
